

American Chemical Society- Puget Sound Section presents an informative afternoon on

“Careers in Chemistry for Undergraduates”

on February 27th 2019, 1-5 PM

at the

Water and Land Resources Division
King County Environmental Laboratory

322 West Ewing Place, Seattle WA 98119

<https://www.kingcounty.gov/depts/dnrp/wlr/sections-programs/environmental-lab.aspx>

Keynote Speaker: Stephanie Jaeger, M.S.

Water Quality Planner II / Oceanographer, King County Environmental Labs

“Water Quality Dynamics in Central Puget Sound: How can long-term monitoring assess for potential impairments?”

Event includes lab tours, a career panel discussion, and the keynote speaker

Recommended for all undergraduate science students

Free admission and open to all. Space is limited

Please Register by February 10th, 2019

Registration is limited to 50 participants. Register at <http://pugetsound.sites.acs.org/>

For more information: bopegedd@evergreen.edu

